SUBJECT INDEX (Vol. 13, 1990)

A Backward Glance, 16, 52, 107, 148
A brief history on the development of ophthalmic retinal photography into digital imaging, 101
Abstracts, 69, 151
A cost-effective method for producing custom dental teaching aids using RTV silicone, 53
Adult learning and video training in health care, 143
Anatomy, a photographic technique for teaching topographical, from whole body transverse sections, 43
Anatomy, computer graphics in the teaching of, 49
An important diffraction effect in infrared photography, 121
A photographic technique for teaching topographical anatomy from whole body transverse sections, 43
Application, clinical, and two methods of photorefraction, 124
Ascariasis: a case presentation (study), 64
Audiovisual resources for learning – a brave new world unrealized?, 17

Care and cleaning of the non-contemporary photographic image, 61
Case presentation, Ascariasis, (study), 64
CHPA's ICD-9.CM as a coding source for medical slide filing, 55
Cine photography of anterior segment fluorescein angiography of iris tumours, 95
Clinical performance, effect of British-made videotpes, of medical students in Pakistan, 20
Colour teaching aids in oral pathology, 9
Computer-aided manipulation of photographs for leg lengthening, 13
Computer graphics in the teaching of anatomy, 49

Demonstration of cerebral micro-emboli occurring during coronary artery bypass graft surgery using fluorescein angiography, 87
Dental teaching aids, a cost-effective method for providing custom, using RTV silicone, 53
Digital imaging, a brief history on the development of ophthalmic retinal photography into, 101

Editorial, 2, 43, 79, 119
Effect of British-made videotapes on clinical performance of medical students in Pakistan, 20
Equipment and methods, 32, 65, 108, 149
Equipment for ophthalmological photography: part II, 4
Evolution of an innovation, learning resources in a medical school, 131

Fluorescein angiography, cine photography of anterior segment, of iris tumours, 95
Fluorescein angiography, demonstration of cerebral microemboli occurring during coronary artery bypass graft surgery using, 87

Gallery, 31, 42, 78, 90, 118, 120, 142

Health care, adult learning and video training in, 143
Hypercard: teaching technology for successful learning, 25

Implant lens, retina's eye view of, 92
Infrared photography, an important diffraction effect in, 121
Iris tumours, cine photography of anterior segment fluorescein angiography, 95

Learning materials, 39, 71, 109, 155
Learning resources in a medical school – the evolution of an innovation, 131

Management of slides by departments of medical illustration and medical libraries in university teaching hospitals, 135
Microscopy, specular, at Southampton Eye Hospital, 83

Never mind the content, look at the edits: fundamentals of video editing, 81

Obituary: Derek Sidney Martin 1905–1990, 106
Off-air recording licences, 129
Ophthalmic retinal photography, a brief history on the development of, into digital imaging, 101
Oral pathology, colour teaching aids in, 9

Photographic image, care and cleaning of the non-contemporary, 61
Photographs for leg lengthening, computer aided manipulation, 13
Photography, equipment for ophthalmological, part II, 4
Photorefraction: two methods and their clinical applications, 124

Recording licences, off-air, 129
Reports, 76, 146
Retina's eye view of the implant lens, 92
Reviews, 37, 75, 158

Slide filing, CHPA's ICD-9.CM as a coding source for, 55
Slides, management of, by departments of medical illustration and medical libraries in university teaching hospitals, 135
Specular microscopy at Southampton Eye Hospital, 83

Teaching aids, a cost-effective method for producing custom dental, using RTV silicone, 53
Teaching aids, colour, in oral pathology, 9
Teaching of anatomy, computer graphics in, 49
Teaching technology, Hypercard, for successful learning, 25
Teaching topographical anatomy from whole body transverse sections, a photographic technique, 45

Video editing, never mind the contents, look at the edits: fundamentals of, 81
Video training, adult learning and, in health care, 143
Videotapes, effect of British-made on clinical performance of medical students in Pakistan, 20
